

RUTGERS
UNIVERSITY | CAMDEN

MID-ATLANTIC REGIONAL CENTER FOR THE HUMANITIES
M·A·R·C·H
RUTGERS UNIVERSITY-CAMDEN

HISTORIC PRESERVATION at MARCH

SPRING 2018 CONTINUING EDUCATION COURSES

Materials and Techniques of Historic Restoration and Rehabilitation

10-week course | Instructor: Bob Russell

The course offers an overview of different materials commonly used in this region and the techniques for their repair. Materials to be examined are: masonry (stone, brick, concrete, terra cotta, mortar), wood, finishes, plaster, and metals. The class will discuss techniques utilized to read historic evidence in buildings and be introduced to rehabilitation codes. This course should benefit architects, contractors, and the preservation community in general.

Dates: Tuesdays,
Jan. 30-Apr. 10
(no class Mar.13)

Time: 6:30 p.m.-8:30 p.m.

Location: West ABC,
Campus Center,
Rutgers-Camden

Cost: $250

Credits: 2 CEUs;
20 AIA LU credits

Preservation Planning

10-week course | Instructor: Dorothy P. Guzzo and others

This course provides an overview and detailed look at the legal, economic, and community planning aspects of historic preservation in New Jersey and Pennsylvania. Students will discuss land use and preservation law, federal and state standards, the integration of preservation with municipal planning, redevelopment, and environmental goals, advocacy, and community activism. Emphasis will be placed on obtaining a sound working understanding of regional municipal land use law and other regulations promulgated by the states of New Jersey and Pennsylvania affecting land use at the municipal level.

Dates: Wednesdays,
Jan. 31-Apr. 18 (no class
on Feb. 14 and Mar. 14)

Time: 6:30p.m.-8:30 p.m.

Location: West ABC,
Campus Center,
Rutgers-Camden

Cost: $250

Credits: 2 CEUs; 20 AIA LU
credits; 20 AICP CM credits;
3.5 AICP Law credits

Documenting Historic Buildings

5-week course | Instructor: Bruce Laverty

This five-session workshop will review and illustrate successful strategies for gleaning information from a variety of sources including traditional paper-based documents, as well as multiple digital resources. Participants will learn to glean building information from public documents such as deeds, newspapers, wills, building permits, historical surveys, and local, state, and federal historic registrations. Also included will be instruction on discovering and making use of private records, such as family papers, photographic collections, maps, architectural drawings, and historic structure reports. The course will feature site-visits to local repositories, including the Athenaeum of Philadelphia.

Dates: Saturdays,
Jan. 20-Feb. 17

Time: 10:00 a.m.-
12:00 p.m.

Location: various locations

Cost: $125

Credits: 1 CEUs; 10 AIA LU
credits

FOR MORE INFORMATION, VISIT PRESERVATION.RUTGERS.EDU